Witness the famous landmarks of Dubai on a half-day city tour with guide - Visit Dubai Gold Souk

After buffet breakfast, transfer to discover the new and old of Dubai. One of the best ways to explore both the historic and the glittering sides of Dubai often referred to as the Middle East Gem. Starting from the Dubai creek, The Jumeirah Mosque is a popular point of interest covered in this itinerary. For a peep into the glitzy side of Dubai our itinerary will take you to see the phenomenal Burj Al-Arab Hotel - the seven-star hotel that is specially noted for its distinctive silhouette resembling a billowing sail; the Palm Islands - the crescent shaped man-made islands; Atlantis Hotel and The Burj Khalifa - the towering building that is one of its kind in the whole world. Equally noteworthy are Dubai's scenic attractions and a visit to the sun-kissed Jumeirah Beach will provide you with an equal opportunity to immerse in the city's natural beauty. The journey ends with a drive through Sheikh Zayed Road that has imposing skyscrapers lined up on either side and shopping at one of the city's most prominent shopping malls. Later, make a stop at Dubai's renowned Gold Souk, which traces its origins back to the 1940s when Indian and Iranian traders first established stalls in the region. Today, it stands as one of the most bustling jewelry markets globally, featuring hundreds of shops and stalls offering a wide array of shimmering treasures, primarily crafted in gold and other precious metals and gems. An estimated 20 percent of the world's gold flows through this souk, with an impressive 10 tons (9,072 kilograms) of the precious metal available for purchase at any given moment in the market.
